

نموذج اختبار و حلول رقم ١:

1- Multiple sclerosis is:

- a- a disease of elderly
- b- a disease of the CNS
- c- a fatal infection
- d- treated with antibiotics

2- Myasthenia Gravis all true except:

- a- is a presynaptic neuromuscular junction disorder.
- b- causes fluctuating weakness.

c- treated with acetylcholine inhibitors d- can be restricted to the eye muscles

3- Optic neuritis, all true except:

a- affects males and females

b- may present with eye pain c- is inflammation of the optic nerve d- never recovers

4- All are seen in transverse myelitis except:

a- sensory level

b- sphincters dysfunction

c- dysarthria

d- paraparesis

5- Dementia, all true except:

a- is seen mainly in elderly b- could be inherited

c- could be caused by vitamin B 12 deficiency d- is usually associated with fever

6- Delirium all true except:

a- a reversible disturbance of consciousness

b- lasts for years

c- caused by a medical condition, substance intoxication, or medication side effect.

d- not better accounted for by dementia

7- all are symptoms/signs of myasthenia gravis except:

a- diplopia

b- ptosis

c- dysarthria

d- seizures