

Lectures:

RADIOGRAPHIC TECHNIQUES FOR CHILDREN

(McDonald, Chapter 5)

Introduction to radiography, radiation safety and protection, selection criteria, radiographic examination, types of radiographic techniques (intra oral view, extra oral view, interpretation).

DENTAL TRAUMA II

(Pinkham, Chapter 34)

Etiology of epidemiology of trauma in the young permanent dentition, classification of injuries to young permanent teeth, history, clinical examination, treatment of traumatic injuries, to the permanent dentition, managing sequelae to dental trauma, treating of luxation injuries in permanent dentition.

DENTAL MANAGEMENT OF DISABLED CHILDREN II

(McDonald, Chapter 23, Pinkham, Chapter 16)

Introduction, mental retardation, convulsive disorders, down's syndrome, cerebral palsy, ectodermal dysplasia, visual impairments and blindness, hearing impairments and deafness, in prevention special children.