

REEM ALSHAGRI

Email • rshegri@ksu.edu.sa

I am an applied economist, my research interest is related to the areas of productivity, technical inefficiency, and financial performance. My main research interest is analyzing causes of technical inefficiency either from a productivity perspective or a financial performance perspective. I paid particular attention to the effect of export, labour market restructuring, capital structure and ownership structure on the technical inefficiency.

EXPERIENCE

2022 – NOW

ASSISTANT OF VICE DEAN OF QUALITY AND DEVELOPMENT, KNIG SAUD UNIVERSITY

2022 – NOW

ASSISTANT PROFESSOR, DEPARTMENT OF ECONOMICS, KING SAUD UNIVERSITY

2012 – 2016

VICE CHAIRMAN OF ECONOMICS DEPARTMENT, KNIG SAUD UNIVERSITY

2010 – 2022

LECTURER, DEPARTMENT OF ECONOMICS, KING SAUD UNIVERSITY

2007 – 2010

DEMONSTRATOR, DEPARTMENT OF ECONOMICS, KING SAUD UNIVERSITY

EDUCATION

PHD ECONOMICS, UNIVERSITY OF LEEDS.

MSC ECONOMICS, KING SAUD UNIVERSITY.

BACHELOR DEGREE OF ADMINISTRATIVE SCIENCE IN THE FIELD OF ECONOMICS, KING SAUD UNIVERSITY.

RESEARCH AND STUDIES

- My PhD thesis contains three independent studies:
The first study: Effect of Openness and Labour Market Restructuring on Saudi Arabian Technical Efficiency: An Industry-Level Analysis.
The second study: Influence of Leverage on the Relationship Between Institutional Investors and Performance: Productivity and Financial Performance of Saudi Listed Firms.
The third study: The Influence of Growth Opportunities on the Relationship between Institutional Investors and the Speed of Adjustment of Optimal Capital Structure: Evidence from Saudi Listed Firms.
- Alqudair, K and Alshagri, R (2012). Current account dynamics based on the present value model: Evidence from Saudi Arabia. African Journal of Business Management Vol.6 (33), pp. 9388-9398
- An economic researcher in a group work who is assigned to do a study about Land Transportation Sector in GCC (2011)
- An economic researcher in a group work who is assigned to do a study about A Vision Towards a Regional Balance Development in Kingdom of Saudi Arabia. (2011)

TEACHING COURSES

- Applied Econometrics (Econ 423)
- Principles of Microeconomics (Econ 101).
- Principles of Macroeconomics (Econ 102).
- Microeconomics Analysis (Econ 201).
- Money and Banking (Econ 211).
- Macroeconomics Analysis (Econ 202).

TRAINING COURSES

- [2021] Estimate (28 hours). Econometrics Course held by Michigan State University.
- [2021] Panel Data Methodology and Empirical Analysis (8 hours).
- [2019] Advanced Micro-Econometrics for Policy Evaluation (14 hours).
- [2019] Panel Data Econometrics (17 hours).
- [2018] Introduction to R: with data pre-processing and visualization (3 hours)
- [2009] Credit Market Expert.
- [2007] Feasibility Study

- [2019] Performance Measurement Using Data Envelopment Analysis (DEA) and Stochastic Frontier Analysis (SFA) (28 hours)