

CV

EDUCATION:

Aug., 1999 - Dec 2003: University of South Carolina, Columbia, SC.
Ph.D. in Public Health Administration.
Sep., 1994 - Nov., 1997: Drexel University, Philadelphia, PA.
M. S. Clinical Engineering.
1986 - 1991: King Saud University, Riyadh, Saudi Arabia
B. S. Biomedical Technology Instrumentation.

EXPERIENCE:

October, 2007 – August 2010: Vice Dean:
College of Nursing, King Saud University.
May, 2006 – October, 2007: Vice Dean for Administrative Affairs:
College of Tourism and Archeology, King Saud University.
Dec., 2003 – To Date: Assistant Professor:
Master's Program in Health and Hospital Administration,
Department of Public Administration, College of Administrative Sciences, King Saud University.
Nov., 1998 - June., 1999: Lecturer:
Master Program in Health and Hospital Administration,
Department of Public Administration, College of Administrative Sciences, King Saud University.
Jan., 1998 - Nov., 1998: Teaching Assistant:
Biomedical Technology department, King Saud University.
June., 1996 - March 1997: Biomedical Engineering Intern:
Health Devices Group, Emergency Care Research Institute (ECRI).
Oct., 1993 - Sep., 1994: Teaching Assistant:
Biomedical Technology Department, King Saud University
Nov., 1992 – Oct., 1993: Biomedical Engineer:
Saudi International Trading Company LTD. A Mawarid Group Company, Riyadh, Saudi Arabia.

RESEARCH INTERESTS:

Health Insurance, Utilization of Health Care Services, and demographic effects on health care services utilization.

INSTRUCTED COURSES:

Health Insurance, Advanced Topics in Health and Hospital Administration, Research Methods, Introduction to Biostatistics, Introduction to Public Administration, and Essentials of Organization and Methods.