

Abdulrahman Nabil Alsaleh

710 N. Walnut St. Apart. #302 +1 (812) 606 -2255
Bloomington; IN 47404 +966 561 91 5519
United States

analsaleh@ksu.edu.sa
aalsaleh@usc.edu

<https://www.linkedin.com/in/abdulrahman-alsaleh-l-l-m-65408287>

---

EDUCATION

Indiana University Maurer School of Law, Indiana, United States

Juridical Degree of Law (S.J.D)

August 2016 – present

University of Southern California Gould School of Law, California, United States

Master of Laws (L.L.M.)

May 2015

- GPA: 3.47/4.00
- High Honors: Reviewing and Negotiating Business Contracts (4.1), Mergers and Acquisitions (3.9), Directed Research (4.0)
- Honors: Securities Regulation (3.5), Partnership and Limited Liability Companies (3.6)
- Obtained business law certificate completed 17 in-class units of selective business law subjects
- Co-organized the Annual Entertainment Law and Business Institute

University of California Los Angeles, California, United States

Academic English Certificate

June 2014

- Completed Academic Intensive English Language Program as a full-time student
- GPA: 3.80/4.00

King Saud University, Riyadh, Saudi Arabia

English and Skills for Scientific Research Program

June 2012

- Full-time trainee in special program for university's lecturers

King Saud University College of Law and Political Science, Riyadh, Saudi Arabia

Bachelor's Degree in Laws (L.L.B.)

June 2011

- GPA: 4.87/5.00
- Ranking: 3rd in Class of 2011
- Awarded the First Class of Honor
- Named to the Dean's List for Outstanding Students
- Participated in abroad training program for two weeks, the United Kingdom, 2011
- Served in the Dean's Advisory Council
- Represented undergraduate students in the Faculty Academic Guidance Committee
- Member of the Saudi Society of Political Science
- Co-organized a workshop entitled "Contemporary Tendencies of Judicial Compensation in The Saudi Board of Grievances," 2010
- Active member in the Law Club for three consecutive years

WORK EXPERIENCE

King Saud University, College of Law and Political Science, Riyadh, Saudi Arabia

Tenured Lecturer

May 2015 -present

- Taught Corporate Law and Maritime Law courses to undergraduate students
- Collaborated in several internal committees
- Reviewed and arbitrated student complaints
- Granted a full scholarship to pursue a doctor of philosophy degree in law, with sabbatical leave starting August 2016

King Saud University College of Law and Political Science, Riyadh, Saudi Arabia

Teaching Assistant

February 2011- May 2015

- Provided lectures in professors' absence by teaching some law courses, Commercial Law, Civil Law and Principles of Law, for undergraduate students
- Graded students' assignments and quizzes
- Advised and mentored new students through presentations
- Granted a full scholarship to pursue an LL.M. degree

Alsaleh Office for Lawyering and Legal Consulting, Dammam, Saudi Arabia

Paralegal

June 2011– February 2012

- Co-represented clients in court
- Drafted memoranda of defense and prepared papers for arbitration sessions

Saudi Arabian Oil Company Saudi Aramco, Dhahran, Saudi Arabia

Intern in Labor Relations Division

July- September 2010

- Observed trials with company representatives who represents Aramco in its disputes before the labor court
- Drafted grant proposals and reviewed the company's bylaws and the employee's guidelines

ACADEMIC RESEARCH AND PROJECTS

Saudi Family Businesses upon their founders' death

January- May 2015

- Analyzed a brief introduction to the Sharia inheritance law as applied in Saudi Arabia and its impacts on the business field, particularly family-owned businesses
- the outcomes of such an application of the inheritance law on these businesses on different levels, the Saudi market and national economy as whole, international investors and companies and the business itself
- Articulated some of the ongoing governmental and business owners' efforts to the adoption of corporate governance of family businesses
- Grade Received: A (4.0 High Honor)

B.O.T (Build-Operate-Transfer) implementations in Saudi Arabia

February- May 2011

- Identified the theoretical scope of B.O.T contracts and regulations through a comparative study of laws in Saudi Arabia, Jordan and Egypt. Analyzed and elucidated the practical and judicial scope of B.O.T contracts in Saudi Arabia and presented on the huge governmental projects for the two Holy Mosques
- Visited the Saudi Board of Grievances to obtain some cases related to these contracts
- Grade Received: A+

LEGAL PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT

- Basic Mediation and Restorative Justice Training, Community Justice and Mediation Center, Bloomington, Indiana, September 2016
- Spotlight on Saudi Arbitration Law, Riyadh Chamber of Commerce and Industry, 2011
- The Technique of Criminal Arguments, Law Club, King Saud University, 2010
- Qualifying as an Arbitrator. Adel Center, Riyadh, 2010
- Legal Protection for Commercial Activities, Law Club, King Saud University, 2009
- Laws of Jurisdiction in Saudi Arabia, Law Club, King Saud University, 2009
- Skills of Argumentation, Law Club, King Saud University, 2009

LANGUAGE SKILLS

- Arabic (Native)
- English (Professional Fluency)