

Ahmed M. Alenezi, PhD, DABSNM

Education
Degree	Subject	Year(s)	Name of university
Ph.D	Medical Physics & Clinical Engineering (Nuclear Medicine Physics) Thesis Title “ Validation of OSEM algorithm for attenuation correction in cardiac SPECT imaging ” http://etheses.whiterose.ac.uk/3568/	2001-2004	University of Sheffield, UK
M.Sc	Medical Physics The degree curriculum included both didactic and practical instruction in Nuclear Medicine Science, Radiotherapy, Ultrasound and Clinical Applications of Non-Ionizing Radiation. Included a 3-month research capstone entitle: “ Accuracy of Ultrasound Measurements of Biparietal Diameter and Femur Length in Fetal Growth Measurements ”	1996-1997	University of Aberdeen, UK

Board Certification
Name of organization	Class of certification	Year
American Board of Science in Nuclear Medicine, USA	American Board Certified in Nuclear Medicine Science (With Molecular Imaging Science Subspecialty)	2007

Completed one-year post-doctoral training in clinical Nuclear Medicine at Charles Drew University of Medicine and Science at California State and Cleveland Clinic Foundation at Ohio State. The training included Nuclear Medicine Physics, Instrumentations and Molecular Imaging. In June 2007 passed the ABSNM certificate exams and become a Board Certified Clinical Nuclear Medicine Scientist

Licensure and Professional Certification
Name of organization	Class of certification	Year
Accredited and registered by Saudi Commission for Health Specialties	Consultant Medical Physicist (Consultant Nuclear Medicine Physicist)	2008-2021
Licensed as a Radiation Safety Expert in Medical Field (Nuclear Medicine), King Abdullah City for Atomic and Renewable Energy, Saudi Arabia	License number: 5	2017
Qualified and Registered Medical Physicist with “National Qualified Medical Physicists Registry”, Conference of Radiation Control Program Directors (CRCPD). http://qmp.crcpd.org/default.aspx	Qualified and Registered Medical Physicist	2007
Institute of Physics and Engineering in Medicine, (IPEM) UK	Postgraduate Diploma of the IPEM (to work as a Physical Scientist in Health care)	2000
