

ARCH 333 Building Construction-1 3 (2 + 2 Studio)

Course aims:

- Introduction to various building systems and primary building elements.
- Classification and description of building systems.
- Detailed study of skeletal, framed structures, roofs, floors, space structures, foundations and working joints.
- Detailed study of vertical circulation elements: stairs and ramps.
- Practical exercises in building construction and preparation of drawings and field study reports.