ReHIS-2014

The 1st International WorkshopReliability of eHealth Information SystemsOctober 15-18, 2014, Ponta Negra, Natal-RN, Brazil.www.encs.concordia.ca/~amjad/ReHIS/

In association with

16th International Conference on E-health Networking, Application & Services

(HealthCom 2014)

15-18 October, 2014, Ponta Negra, Natal-RN, Brazil

<http://www.ieee-healthcom.org/>

This workshop, organized in conjunction with HealthCom, provides an international forum for the research community working on testing, verification, performance evaluation, and reliability of eHealth research areas. Topics of interest include, but are not limited to:

- Testing and verification of eHealth
- Simulation based methods in eHealth
- Formal methods in eHealth
- Verification of eHealth software and equipment
- Performance evaluation of eHealth systems
- Open issues, surveys on eHealth reliability
- Healthcare sensors reliability
- Patient data security and reliability
- Fault tolerance in eHealth
- Vulnerability assessment
- Security access policies and privacy issues in eHealth
- Secured network architectures for eHealth
- Secure transmission, processing, and storage
- Reliability of eHealth technologies: mHealth, WBSN.
- Intrusion and fraud detection in eHealth systems
- eHealth Security Forensics and Investigation
- Electronic health record (EHR) systems reliability
