

Course Specification

101 salam

Course title and Code:

Introduction to Islamic Culture

Approved hours:

2 hours

Objectives & Goals:

1- Concise description of the basic learning outcomes for the students enrolled in the course:

Course objectives are: -

- 1- Establish Islamic correct belief.
- 2- To enable the student know the original and sub-sources of Islamic culture.
- 3- Introduction to Islamic religion's characteristics.
- 4- Training students on reporting on contemporary thought issues in the light of Islamic Culture.

Topics that will be covered:

Definition of Islamic Culture and stating importance, sources, challenges encountering and Muslim attitude towards others cultures.

General Characteristics of Islam

Islamic Belief, Definition, Support, Impact and contrary

Description of knowledge to be acquired at the course:

- Making the student aware of what is meant by culture in general and Islamic culture in particular.
- Making the student aware of the original and sub-sources of Islamic culture and the way to make use of them.
- Acquaintance of general characteristics of Islam and that distinguishes it from other.]
- Acquaintance of the Islamic Belief and its impact on life.

Acquaintance of the risks surrounding Muslim as result of the Cultural invasion

Students evaluation:

Project 25%

Mid. Exam 35%

Term exam 40%

Learning Sources:

Main Book (books) required:-

- Introduction to Islamic Culture, by Dr. Ibrahim Alrees , Dr. Ahmed Almazeed, Dr. Idris Mohamed. Dr. Khalid Alqasim , Dr. Ali Alsayah.

Essential References:

- Prefaces in Islamic Culture, by Dr. Mofreh B. Sulaiman Alqosi.

- Introduction to Islamic Law study by, Dr. Abdulkarm Zaidan.

Recommended books and references:

- Journal of Um-Alqura University for Islamic Sciences and Arabic .

- Electronic materials & the internet sites:

- Site of acquiring benefits
- Site of learned men like Late Sheikh Ben Etheemeen and Sheikh Ben Baz