

Curriculum Vitae

Name: Nouf Abdullah Al-hamdan

Work Experience:

K.S.A Riyadh / King Saud University/ (2003 – 2006)

Volunteer in the Special Education Department

K.S.A Riyadh / Arabian Academy for Special Education/ (2007 – 2010)

Administrative in the Early intervention department

K.S.A Riyadh / King Saud University/ (2010 – present)

Teacher Assistant in the Media Department

Qualifications:

- MFA in New Media, School Of Visual Art

Penn State University, Completion Date: 2014.

Graduated with a GPA of 3.87 out of 4.

- Bachelor Degree, Special education. Mental disability

King Saud University, Completion Date: 2007

Graduated in the second-class honor, GPA 4.59 out of 5.

Other Activities

- Participating in the imperfect_ten exhibition. Zoller Gallery, Penn State University.
- Organizing the lecture of (keeping up with future development).
- Organizing in the lecture of (children psychology).
- Organizing the summer program in the Arabian Academy for Special Education for the years: 2007-2008.
- Presenting videos in the Global day of disability " for the years: 2005-2006-2007.
- Attending the workshop (how to deal with people with autism).
- Volunteering as a Media Technologist as a member of The Khaleeji Student Association at Penn State (2011-2013).
- Volunteering in Producing a video for the United Arab Emirates student Association at Penn State
- Volunteering as a Media Technologist as a member in Saudi Arabian student association at Penn State University (2013-present).
- Career goal
- Education development and career stability