

BIBLE & LANGUAGE COMPETENCY EXAMS

ATTENTION MDIV & MA students:
Have you passed the Bible competency exams?
If not, this may be your last chance!

M.Div. and M.A. students, you have the opportunity to take the Bible Competency Exams your first and second semester only! If you do not pass the Bible Competency Exams (OT and NT), or choose not to take the exams within your first and second semester, you will be required to take OT 500: Old Testament Survey and NT 501: New Testament Survey in order to complete your program.

Language competency exams (Hebrew and Greek) are also offered twice a year, typically September and January. However, Language Competency Exams may be taken any time during one's program. Please see the current Student Handbook for policies and procedures concerning language competency examinations.

*Please detach the bottom portion of this form and return it to the Registration Office by Monday, September 5, 2005, in order to RESERVE YOUR SEAT.
