

King Saud University

College of Nursing

NUR 317 clinical part

Goal

Utilize the holistic approach in caring for the individual by following nursing process with emphasis on assessment and client education related to the cardiovascular, respiratory, endocrine, urinary, and gastrointestinal systems.

Work positively and effectively in a group or team based project with an emphasis on professionalism and communication skills.

You should review the following topics before your clinical experiences days:

- 1) Anatomy and physiology
- 2) Physical assessment
- 3) Infection prevention
- 4) Vital signs
- 5) Medication administration
- 6) Oxygenation
- 7) Wound care
- 8) Internal feeding
- 9) Catheterization

By the end of this semester you should perform all the following clinical skills:

- 1) Assessment of ill patient
- 2) Administer all kind of medications under supervision
- 3) Wound care
- 4) Feeding
- 5) Suctioning
- 6) Nebulizing
- 7) Practice different method of isolation
- 8) Documentation
- 9) Glucometer check