Tentative Course Schedule

This plan is based on a graduate level course. Course teaching requires once weekly meeting based on the university graduate requirements for three hours and requires students to keep a journal. However, this may change to accommodate guest presenters and student needs.

Week and date	Topics	Subjects / Pages	Remarks
1st 09 Sep.	Registration
2nd 16 Sep.	Introduction to the Course	Requirements: Title Ethical forms Settings	The instructor and the students
3rd 23 Sep.	Chapter 1 (introduction)	Introduction Objectives Research questions Contacting Settings	Draft 1 Must be submitted
4th 14 Oct.	Chapter 2 and part of Chapter 3 (LR and research tools)	Tools must be at hands Essential journals, research framework, and theory	These should be now crystal- clear
5th 21 Oct.	Chapter 3 and Data Collection (Method)	Use	1st Draft of LR should be handed
6th 28 Oct.	Data Collection and data cleaning (Method)	Collect your data consistently	Be sure to follow up and format your thesis
7th 4 Nov.	Continue data collection and Data entry		1st and 2nd chapters should be ready
8th 11 Nov.	Chapter 4 (Results) and revision of previous chapters
9th 18 Nov.	Chapter 4 (make descriptive and inferential analysis for your results)		Submit your 1,2,3 chapters for revision

Week and date	Topics	Subjects / Pages	Remarks
10th 25 Nov.	First draft thesis		Submit your first draft
11th 2 Dec.	Revise and arrange your thesis according to KSU requirements
12th 9 Dec.	Edit, Edit, and edit.		Revision
13th 16 Dec.	Submit for review		Any remarks
14th 23 Dec.	Final review		Any gap?
15 06 Jan.	Final submission		Tentative date