

Amal Khalaf Hamdan Alghamdi

Saudi Arabia, Riyadh

P.O.Box: 88616

Tel: + 96611 / 474-1268

Mobile: +966555301700

Email: ahamdan1@ksu.edu.sa

Education:

- 2012 King Saud University. M.Sc. in Microbiology (Honors), GPA 4.85.
- 2004 King Abdul Aziz University B.Sc. (Honors) Microbiology, GPA 4.92.

Qualifications :

- 2014 Participating in the 2nd Liver Diseases & Transplantation Symposium –will be held on 19th February 2014
- 2013 Participating in the MONOTHEMATIC CONFERENCE: Translational Research in Chronic Viral Hepatitis - Bridging Basic Science and Clinical Research in 2013 of my research entitled “Correlation between Hepatitis B surface antigen titers and HBV DNA levels”.

- 2013 Published the same research paper in The Saudi Journal of Gastroenterology.

Work Experience :

- 2008- now Instructor at Botany & Microbiology Department at King Saud University.
- 2004 Microbiology Laboratory assistance in Madina’s National Hospital in Madina.
- 2004-2005 Teaching assistant at the microbiology laboratory in Taibah University.

Awards

- 2014 Full bursary award for the membership of the European association for the Study of the Liver and entitled to all association membership benefits.
- 2001 – 2002, first class award, GPA 4.85.
- 2002 – 2003, first class award, GPA 4.89.
- 2004 Appreciation award from the Dean of Taibah University.

Skills:

- Hands on training course of Liquid Chromatography & Mass Spectrometry (LC & LCMS) at King Faisal Specialist Hospital & Research Center (KFSH&RC), Riyadh.
- High performance using different computer software and statistical programs.
- Enhancing the English language ability.
- Preparing for the TOEFL.
- IELTS grade 6.5.