

Graduation Project (2) – GPH 497

Course title and code: Graduation Project (2) – GPH 497

Level/year at which this course is offered: Level 7- 4th year

Pre-requisites for this course (if any): GPH 496

The main purposes of the course: To develop the skills needed to achieve the following objectives:

- Processing and interpretation of geophysical data using specialized software
- Integrating the available geological and geophysical data to produce a final model/conclusions
- Writing a comprehensive final report.

List of Topics

- Processing of the field acquired data
- Interpretation of the field acquired data
- Integrating various types of data to derive a model
- Writing the final report
- Preparing and presenting a final presentation